Intransient Politics Jeopardises Public Interest - TIB

Dhaka, 30 November 2023: Transparency International Bangladesh (TIB) has expressed concern over its participation in the election process, expressing concern over its participatory nature and people's confidence in its fairness. TIB also presented 76 recommendations for fostering in the latest COP-28, hosted by the UAE, as it is a ‘conference of the Parties (CoP) in Atlanta, Georgia.

Fossil Fuel Enterprises’ Aggressive Expansion TURNS COP-28 INTO MOCKERY: TIB

Dhaka, 27 November 2023: Transparency International Bangladesh (TIB) urges the developed world to shift its focus from escalating investments in fossil fuels by the developed nations, despite global climate commitments.

In the recent YES Representative Election 2023, conducted online by YES Group in the Social Welfare and Research (ISWR), Dhaka University, Gaibandha and Abrar Jahin Raien from the Institute of Social Sciences and Humanities, Dhaka University, were elected for TIB’s General Assembly (GA).

Discrepancy in Proposed Basic Wages: TIB OPINES

Kishoreganj, 06 November 2023: The hospital authority, led by Director Dr. Helal Uddin, engaged with the public to address grievances and discuss improvements.

Dr. Helal Uddin, engaged with the public to address concerns in Kishoreganj College Hospital, the hospital authority, led by Director Dr. Helal Uddin, engaged with the public to address concerns in Kishoreganj.

Information fairs were recently held in Sreemangal, promoting RTI Awareness and Empowering Citizens: Information Fairs

On the eve of International Anti-Corruption Day, the YES Group in the Dhaka office presented a play, BotTala, highlighting the audience’s role in preventing GBV. TIB also upholds the people’s right to vote.

Call For Accountability Amidst Fossil Fuel: TIB

For more details, click here

https://www.ti-bangladesh.org/articles/citizens-engagement/6863

https://www.ti-bangladesh.org/articles/citizens-engagement/6866

For more details, click here

https://www.ti-bangladesh.org/articles/story/6844

https://www.ti-bangladesh.org/articles/citizens-engagement/6865

TIB urges the developed world to shift its focus from escalating investments in fossil fuels by the developed nations, despite global climate commitments.

Fossil Fuel Enterprises’ Aggressive Expansion TURNS COP-28 INTO MOCKERY: TIB

Dhaka, 27 November 2023: Transparency International Bangladesh (TIB) urges the developed world to shift its focus from escalating investments in fossil fuels by the developed nations, despite global climate commitments.

In the recent YES Representative Election 2023, conducted online by YES Group in the Social Welfare and Research (ISWR), Dhaka University, Gaibandha and Abrar Jahin Raien from the Institute of Social Sciences and Humanities, Dhaka University, were elected for TIB’s General Assembly (GA).

Discrepancy in Proposed Basic Wages: TIB OPINES

Kishoreganj, 06 November 2023: The hospital authority, led by Director Dr. Helal Uddin, engaged with the public to address concerns in Kishoreganj College Hospital, the hospital authority, led by Director Dr. Helal Uddin, engaged with the public to address concerns in Kishoreganj.

Information fairs were recently held in Sreemangal, promoting RTI Awareness and Empowering Citizens: Information Fairs

On the eve of International Anti-Corruption Day, the YES Group in the Dhaka office presented a play, BotTala, highlighting the audience’s role in preventing GBV. TIB also upholds the people’s right to vote.

Call For Accountability Amidst Fossil Fuel: TIB

For more details, click here

https://www.ti-bangladesh.org/articles/citizens-engagement/6863

https://www.ti-bangladesh.org/articles/citizens-engagement/6866

For more details, click here

https://www.ti-bangladesh.org/articles/story/6844

https://www.ti-bangladesh.org/articles/citizens-engagement/6865

TIB urges the developed world to shift its focus from escalating investments in fossil fuels by the developed nations, despite global climate commitments.

Fossil Fuel Enterprises’ Aggressive Expansion TURNS COP-28 INTO MOCKERY: TIB

Dhaka, 27 November 2023: Transparency International Bangladesh (TIB) urges the developed world to shift its focus from escalating investments in fossil fuels by the developed nations, despite global climate commitments.

In the recent YES Representative Election 2023, conducted online by YES Group in the Social Welfare and Research (ISWR), Dhaka University, Gaibandha and Abrar Jahin Raien from the Institute of Social Sciences and Humanities, Dhaka University, were elected for TIB’s General Assembly (GA).

Discrepancy in Proposed Basic Wages: TIB OPINES

Kishoreganj, 06 November 2023: The hospital authority, led by Director Dr. Helal Uddin, engaged with the public to address concerns in Kishoreganj College Hospital, the hospital authority, led by Director Dr. Helal Uddin, engaged with the public to address concerns in Kishoreganj.

Information fairs were recently held in Sreemangal, promoting RTI Awareness and Empowering Citizens: Information Fairs

On the eve of International Anti-Corruption Day, the YES Group in the Dhaka office presented a play, BotTala, highlighting the audience’s role in preventing GBV. TIB also upholds the people’s right to vote.

Call For Accountability Amidst Fossil Fuel: TIB

For more details, click here

https://www.ti-bangladesh.org/articles/citizens-engagement/6863

https://www.ti-bangladesh.org/articles/citizens-engagement/6866

For more details, click here

https://www.ti-bangladesh.org/articles/story/6844

https://www.ti-bangladesh.org/articles/citizens-engagement/6865

TIB urges the developed world to shift its focus from escalating investments in fossil fuels by the developed nations, despite global climate commitments.

Fossil Fuel Enterprises’ Aggressive Expansion TURNS COP-28 INTO MOCKERY: TIB

Dhaka, 27 November 2023: Transparency International Bangladesh (TIB) urges the developed world to shift its focus from escalating investments in fossil fuels by the developed nations, despite global climate commitments.

In the recent YES Representative Election 2023, conducted online by YES Group in the Social Welfare and Research (ISWR), Dhaka University, Gaibandha and Abrar Jahin Raien from the Institute of Social Sciences and Humanities, Dhaka University, were elected for TIB’s General Assembly (GA).

Discrepancy in Proposed Basic Wages: TIB OPINES

Kishoreganj, 06 November 2023: The hospital authority, led by Director Dr. Helal Uddin, engaged with the public to address concerns in Kishoreganj College Hospital, the hospital authority, led by Director Dr. Helal Uddin, engaged with the public to address concerns in Kishoreganj.

Information fairs were recently held in Sreemangal, promoting RTI Awareness and Empowering Citizens: Information Fairs

On the eve of International Anti-Corruption Day, the YES Group in the Dhaka office presented a play, BotTala, highlighting the audience’s role in preventing GBV. TIB also upholds the people’s right to vote.

Call For Accountability Amidst Fossil Fuel: TIB

For more details, click here

https://www.ti-bangladesh.org/articles/citizens-engagement/6863

https://www.ti-bangladesh.org/articles/citizens-engagement/6866

For more details, click here

https://www.ti-bangladesh.org/articles/story/6844

https://www.ti-bangladesh.org/articles/citizens-engagement/6865

TIB urges the developed world to shift its focus from escalating investments in fossil fuels by the developed nations, despite global climate commitments.